

truth in text:

a weekly reading group

The Mercer Hub is hosting a weekly small reading group on Ta-Nehisi Coates' 2014 Atlantic article, "The Case for Reparations," as well as David Frum's rebuttal articles published within the same publication. The first lesson will start with a screening of Coates delivering a lecture at West Point. Dinner will be provided.

Coates is the recipient of the George Polk Award for commentary in 2014; he was a MacArthur Fellow in 2015 and a National Book Award recipient for Nonfiction, also in 2015.

When: Thursday, October 3 from 6:30 to 8 pm

Where: Suite 10B, 1670 Whitehorse Hamilton Square Rd.
Hamilton, NJ 08690

Registration required.
Scan code to sign up truth in text is sponsored by the NJ4S Mercer Hub. The Mercer Hub team works closely with schools, family success centers, and other community-based providers to make sure students in Mercer County have the mental health services they need to succeed and grow.

For more information, please visit:

https://www.catholiccharitiestrenton.org/nj4s_mercer_hub/ or call 609-394-5157 x3600.